EDITORS EPISTLE

There are no words that can express how much Jacque Holmes and Kay Higdon are appreciated for all the wonderful things they have done for this guild. Kay has left such an empty place in our lives but has left such wonderful memories in our hearts. She will be missed. I have big shoes to try and fill.

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Greetings Fellow Quilters,

Now that we can all breathe a sigh of relief that the "Lake Fire" is under control and the crews are mopping up, hope you all are enjoying great summer weather. The rain has been wonderful. Have you seen the posters expressing our Valley's gratitude to the firefighters? I'm so proud of the residents of our valley.

July 4th was super & before you know it, it will be Labor Day Weekend & our 2015 "Mountain Treasures Quilt Show". I'm excited.

This is a busy, but FUN time of the year for us. The show offers us an opportunity to share our quilts with other quilters and the general public... and who knows, maybe someone will decide that they want to be a quilter too.

We have enough time to do everything that needs to be done...and so, let's all pitch in and help make this our best quilt show yet.

May you smile while you sew,

Jeannie Mazzacane

BUSY BEARS QUILT GUILD MINUTES - June 15, 2015

Our guests tonight are Amber Jeung, Belinda Evans' granddaughter; Kassie Le Masters, Barbara Olsen's niece; Victoria Donchi, who came with Theresa Bondurant; and tonight's speaker Mary Tabar and her sister, Nora Claude.

Cat Harris led the audience in expressing warm wishes to our members who are celebrating their birthdays in June.

TREASURER'S REPORT - Laurie Nahay made a motion that the May 2015 Treasurer's Report be approved. Motion passed.

PROGRAMS - Lorraine Taylor reported on plans for our December Christmas party, which is scheduled for December 7. She also invited everyone to attend our picnic on July 21, and to sign up for that potluck tonight during break.

Janet Schultz described our upcoming programs and workshops. Tonight we will hear a presentation and trunk show by Mary Tabar. Janet reminded members that our 2016 program planning meeting will take place this Wednesday June 17 at 10:00 at Lorraine Taylor's home.

PHILANTHROPY - Sue Hart thanked everyone for bringing items for the food pantry tonight. July's collection theme will be Italian foods. She reported that we have completed our 2015 goal of 200 pillowcases for the Con-Kerr Cancer project, and that we will focus on quilts for Doves and Mom and Dad Project for the remainder of the year. She is seeking a volunteer to replace her as the Philanthropy Chair next year.

2015 QUILT RETREAT— JULY UPDATE

Hard to believe that as I write this our very first retreat at Vina de Lestonnac is only 12 days away! All the planning and work is done; now it's time for fun. Thank you to Bear Country Quilts and Patchworks for their donations for door prizes. And to Janet Shultz, who is donating one of her darling friendship dolls to our prize pool. We've had a nice response from other sponsors, who will be listed in full in a thank you letter and noted on our web site.

I'm sending out maps and information this week on Temecula venues that may be of interest to retreaters. All we need to do now is get there, relax, sew and have fun for three days. Details and lots of pictures to follow in the August newsletter!

Happy July 4th

Gift Baskets

Hi Everyone! I hope this finds all of you enjoying a beautiful summer. So grateful that we made through the fire and many thanks and blessings go out to our wonderful fire fighters. I just wanted to touch base with you on our baskets that will be up for raffle at our Quilt Show. Right now the small group Stitchy Fingers is working on their "Garden Basket". Sandi Cannarella graciously is donating a wonderful Cricut machine and accessories. Lorraine Taylor is graciously donating a two night stay for two at Inspirations with use of the Craft Room. If anyone knows someone who would be willing to donate something to put with the Inspirations Basket, that would be great. Some ideas might be, gift certificates for meals or the movies or maybe a kit that you never gotten around to making. Sodas and snacks would be fun to. Another basket that we always do is a Sewing Basket and also a Fat Quarter Basket. I would like to ask each of you to please bring a fat quarter to our July meeting for the Fat Quarter Basket. Also if you have anything to add to our Sewing basket please bring it to the July meeting. I'm excited to see all the goodies we will have. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to call me. Our baskets are always a very good source of fund-raising at the show. Bottom line, if you have the connections to get donations of any kind, or if you have something you would like to donate, I will find a basket to put it in. There more the better!

Mary Price

Boutique

Hope you are all thinking now about what you want to make to sell in the Quilt Show Boutique. The guild only takes a small percentage of your sales, so this offers you a chance to make some extra holiday or just "fun" money. If you google "ten best-selling items at craft shows" you will find some incredible ideas. Also google "free patterns for craft show items" to list sites with free patterns for items to make. Boutique forms will be available at the coming guild meeting.

We are again going to request that each person selling also contribute a couple of hours manning the boutique. We'll be stationing a permanent "pair of eyes" in the cafeteria portion and we plan on having two "watchers" on the boutique floor at all times too. These will be assigned shifts, so please volunteer when those sign-up sheets go around. There is a copy of the Boutique entry form elsewhere in this newsletter, also guidelines for entering. I have to say that our boutique is one of the best ones that I've seen at local quilt shows. Let's keep this tradition going!

2015 QUILT CHALLENGE

Well... we are sliding into our Challenge Quilt deadline of August 17. We have been getting phone call on last minute details and everyone seems excited. I know Bonnie and I are looking forward to seeing all your Crayola Crayons works of art.

Can't Wait!

Belinda Evans

July is here! That means ONE MORE MONTH until we all get to bring in our Crayola challenge quilts. For those of you (and you know who you are), who have not yet started on this two color challenge, there is still time. It would be terrific if everyone brought in his or her own small masterpiece. So get to it! Pick your material, you pattern or design, your thread and throw caution to the wind. Belinda and I are very anxious to see what the results will be. Have a safe and great Fourth of July! God Bless America!

Bonnie Marshall-Creel

PHILANTHROPY

PANTRY-The theme for this month's pantry is "Italian Food" Pastas and sauces will be a hit! But as always any type of food is appreciated! Pop tops and box tops will be collected.

COMFORT QUILTS—The Con-Kerr Cancer pillowcase project is finished for the year. A huge thanks to all who participated. Mom and Dad baby quilts are ahead of schedule and I have only two kits left for check out. See me if you are interested. Doves quilts are right on target and those turned in have been beautiful. What a wonderful gift they will receive!

Thanks for all your hard work this year. See you at the meeting.

FRIENDSHIP GROUPS

CUT-UPS— The Cut Ups, a very mini, mini group is meeting August 5th, Wednesday at Bonnie Snell's, that's my home. I will provide lunch.

This is an open invitation for guild members to visit us. If you don't belong to a friendship (or mini group) this is a good opportunity for you to check one out. We are a fun group. Our meetings begin around 10 and end usually between 2 and 3. We work on individual projects, often hand work, or a group activity. Sometimes we go on road trips.

If you are coming, Cut Ups member or not, please give me a call so I can plan for you for lunch. I only have room for 10 visitors. Bonnie Snell 909.866.3906

STITCHY FINGERS— We met at Lori Felber's house and at my house last month. We enjoyed each other's company and discussed all the important topics. It's better than therapy!

Our next get-together will be at Laurie Nahay's on the third to solve even more of the world's problems!

2015 OPPORTUNITY QUILT
"MOUNTAIN MAJESTY"

2015 OPPORTUNITY QUILT

We had to cancel our evening at the Discovery Center because of the fires and expected rain, but we will be there two more times this summer for Music in the Mountains. We will also be selling tickets at the Big Bear Lake Guild Quilt Show on Saturday, August 1 and need a couple more of you to help that day. Wendy and Belinda continue to help out greatly with displaying the quilt in their shops for us.

Sunshine and Shadows

Happy birthday to our July babies: Loretta Castelluccio, Madeline Frey, Lillian Hart, Elaine Hudson and Wendy Stephens.

Kudos to Linda Killinger, who has been experiencing great success in the art world. Her quilts have been accepted at Mountain Lakes gallery here in Big Bear and Dezion Gallery, just outside of Zion National Park in Utah. Dezion Gallery has commissioned several pieces showcasing Zion. You can also check out her work on the Superior Threads timeline on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/superiorthreads/photos/a.10150126179915261.397215.260463290260/10155679312965261/?type=1&theater>

There will be plenty of sunshine for Sandi Cannarella, as her move off the hill is back on. She and Bud have purchased a home in Beaumont and will be moving in July, much to our dismay.

Jill Gillham's new baby granddaughter Violet arrived in early June. And my oldest granddaughter Alyssa completed culinary school and received her certificate. If you know of any births, weddings, graduations, or awards of any kind, please email me. We can always use more good news.

And a few of our members are dealing with health problems. Carol Howerton is scheduled for back surgery soon. And Janet Shultz is facing ongoing autoimmune issues. Our positive thoughts are with you both. And please keep Mary Price's brother in your prayers as he faces very serious heart repair surgery, and also Jeannie M's son Billy, during his recovery. And Fran M's daughter is experiencing difficulties with diverticulitis and Lorna H had her 2nd carpal tunnel surgery. Our best healing thoughts to you all.

2015 QUILT SHOW

We had our quilt show planning meeting this week and things are coming together. Our next and last meeting before the quilt show will be on August 12th at 1:00 p.m. at my house.

July's guild meeting is the deadline to order T shirts. I will be placing the order after the meeting so that I can have them for you at August's meeting. They are $10 for sm—xl and $12 for xxl. Everyone needs to have a T shirt to wear for the quilt show.

I will also have the sign up sheets for the different areas that need to be covered as well as for setup and take down. There are still a lot of areas where no one has signed up. It really takes all of us working together to make a great quilt show.

Hope everyone is working on quilts to enter in the show. Just finished my challenge quilt and another UFO. Hoping to get a couple more done.

The deadline to turn in the entry form for your quilts is at August's meeting. If your quilts are completed by then, you can also turn in your quilts that night as well. The deadline to turn in your quilts is Sunday, August 30th.

For ease of getting the quilts safely to the judging, we have had to split up the drop off points for the quilts. The challenge, small wall hangings and large wall hangings will go to my house; the twin/lap quilts will go to Bonnie Snell's house, and the large quilts will go to Jeannie Mazzacane's house. Please call to arrange drop off.

The judging of the quilts will take place on Tuesday, September 1st at 9:30 am at the Mary Johnson Center. You really should plan on attending. I attended for the first time last year and it was great. You really get good feed back from the judge. Instead of our usual potluck, we will be sending out for pizza.

The Lynch Mob night is planned for Friday, August 28th at 5:30 p.m. at Bonnie's House. It's a potluck. For those who don't know what this is... husbands and wives come together, have a chance to meet each other, learn how to hang the quilts, and the husbands organize the pick up/set up for Friday night. Really helps things go more smoothly for set up.

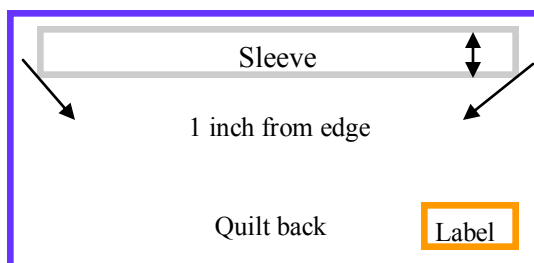

Thank you all for coming together to make a great show.

Karen Cumberland

Please prepare your show quilts for hanging in the following way:

- All quilts including the challenge and wall hangings need to have a hanging sleeve.
- All quilts 70 inches and greater, the hanging sleeve must be broken (opened) half way across to permit a supporting hanger when being displayed in the show.
- Sleeves must be 4 inches deep for the hanger and 2 inches shorter - that is, 1 inch in from the left and right sides:

4 inch sleeve on the vertical

- List the items by number. Enter description, quantity and price. Price all items in even-dollar amounts ($3.00, not $2.99)
- Enter multiples of one item (like five birdhouses) under one item number (put "5" in "quantity" column).
- Please make a copy of the form for yourself, as it will not be returned to you.

SUBMITTING ITEMS

- Attach a removable white string tag to each item with a safety pin, or, if it is a hard surface, with a sticky dot. List only your item#, your initials and the price on the tags. Tags will be available at the July and August guild meetings prior to the quilt show. If you need me to send you some, email me at mary@busybearsquiltsociety.com

Bring all items to the show site on Friday at 4 p.m. Please have completed boutique form with you. Please ensure that all items are tagged. We will need to check your items against the form and have you initial the form. You may then leave your items; we will display them later, after we've received all entries.

PICKING UP ITEMS

- Unsold items may be picked up Sunday afternoon at 4:30, as soon as the boutique forms are checked against the unsold merchandise. This may take awhile; please be patient.
