A Quick Note From The President

Hello Guild Members!

Well, round two is keeping us from our July guild meeting. We are doing our outdoor picnic. Laurie Hancock has included additional information for you in this newsletter.

A big thank you to Anna Harriger for putting a directory together for us. I am sure Laurie Nahay, our Membership Chair, had additional information for you as well.

Let's start posting on our Busy Bears Facebook page all of the projects you have been working on.

Miss you all, hope you are doing well and look forward to seeing you soon!

EDITORS EPISTLE

Hi Everyone!

I would like to thank Anna Harriger for putting together a new directory. For the first time in my life, I have had very bad back problems and have been unable to sit any length of time at the computer.

The last few newsletters have been much shorter so I have at least been able to do those! Thanks Anna!

There are four birthdays in July.
They are:

Loretta Castelluccio 7/6
Madeline Frey 7/13
Wendy Stephens 7/26
Tonee White 7/15

I have not received any other news on the health of our members, but we are hoping and praying that everyone is well and safe!

Hi All!

Our annual picnic is just around the corner. It will be held in Belinda Evans' backyard at 42554 Juniper Drive in Fox Farm on Tuesday, July 21, at 11:30. Instead of making something to exchange this year, we will be having a face mask competition. So, put all your creativity to work and let's see what we come up with! Bring your own lunch, a chair, and your mask. The guild will provide drinks. Please RSVP to Lauriehancock@gmail.com (note the double "h" in the middle) or (818) 259-1380. Hope to see you there!

Philanthropy

Philanthropy has nothing to report. I do have lots of kits at my home if anyone needs something to work on. Miss you all!
